

INTRODUCTION

We are glad to have you with us today and invite you to learn more about Unitarian Universalism and this Fellowship. We offer an open-minded and supportive community in which you are encouraged to ask questions, share ideas, and join us in our search for truth and spiritual understanding.

OUR MISSION AND VISION

The Mission of the UUFF is to nurture learning, inspire spiritual insights, create compassionate relationships, and lovingly transform our community and the world.

The Vision of the UUFF is to be a catalyst for spiritual growth and social justice with service as its guide and love at its core.

Our History

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Fredericksburg grew out of the denomination's fellowship movement, which encouraged the development of small, lay-led congregations. In December 1955, ten people gathered for the first meeting of what was to become the UUFF. That early group, meeting in private homes and rented spaces, and today we are thrilled to focus on the future at our beautiful home at 25 Chalice Circle.

DEDICATION TO SOCIAL JUSTICE

UUFF members and friends strive to make the world more peaceful and just. At UUFF we are deeply committed to our religious principles of human dignity, justice, and compassion for all people.

SUNDAY SERVICES

Sunday service is held at 10:30 a.m. in a hybrid format, online and in-person.

Sunday Service may focus on spiritual or personal growth, teachings from the world's religions, issues of concern to the local and global community, Unitarian Universalist principles and history, or other thought-provoking topics.

We also offer intergenerational services, holiday programs, and special UU rites, such as our water service, flower communion, and child dedications.

After services, please join us for coffee and a time of fellowship

GIFTS OF MUSIC

At UUFF, we celebrate gifts of all kinds, and one of these gifts is music, our music program. During the year, musical offerings of all types, from choir to handbells to guitars, play a crucial part in our Sunday worship and evenings in between, enriching our lives and strengthening our community. For more information on our music program, visit our website and keep an eye out for opportunities to get involved if the gift of music is something you would be interested in offering the fellowship.

LIFESPAN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

At the UUFF, our Religious Education (RE) program offers children, teens, and adults a safe, inclusive environment to explore and develop their spirituality, while building beloved community through shared faith development. Classes for all ages focus on UU identity, ethical decision-making, our eight principles and six sources, social justice, and other topics related to the world our congregants inhabit. If you want to learn more about our RE program, you can visit our website and watch for opportunities to get involved.

GROUPS & ACTIVITIES

Throughout the year, we sponsor special events, activities and programs, including discussion groups, musical presentations, holiday parties, potluck suppers and picnics, etc. which are some of the ways in which we come together as a community to learn, share, and grow. There is something for everyone and you are welcome to explore with us if there is something you might wish to offer that does not seem to meet your interest, community or spiritual needs.
